Introduction and Invitation

Praise be to God alone, and prayers and peace be upon Prophet Muhamed after whom there is no prophet and his family and companions.

In light of the Al-Aqsa Flood War, on the verge of liberation, on the anniversary of the Night Journey, and on the anniversary of the Salahi liberation of Al Quds, this season (of Al Quds Global Week) comes in its fourth edition

Starting from Friday, Rajab 21, 1445 AH, corresponding to February 2, 2024 AD, until Friday, Rajab 28, 1445 AH, corresponding to February 9, 2024 AD.

In order to gain honor and perform our required duty we must all enter this existential battle, in support and victory for Al Quds, Gaza, and the Palestinian cause in general, through concerted efforts and activities in various countries of the world, and to become the voice of Al-Aqsa and the resistance. May the voice of Al-Aqsa and the resistance become the loudest in the universe, marking the liberation of the blessed Al-Aqsa Mosque, the Holy City and all of Palestine, God willing. The activities of Al Aqsa global Week need all of us: individuals, institutions, forces, parties, and influencers.

This guide contains everything necessary to interact with this global event and to activate and mobilize all segments of society and free people of the world under the slogan "Al-Aqsa... The Flood of the Ummat"

Ideas for suggested local programs

1. Corresponding all parties to participate in the activities of AlQuds Global Week and arranging special programs on their part (in their own name and displaying Al Quds Global Week logo)
2. Organizing marches in support of Gaza, AlQuds and Palestine in countries where they are legally available and whose health conditions permit.
3. Organizing symbolic demonstrations in front of influential parties
4. Corresponding to institutions, leaders of Islamic and national movements, and all political parties and leaders in their countries with letters reminding them of their responsibilities through official and direct correspondence.
5. Activating social media platforms during the week with various designs and videos and activating them to remember and talk about the Palestinian narrative of the Al-Aqsa Flood.
6. Celebrations of the Night Journey and Mi'raj and the anniversary of the Saladin liberation of AlQuds in the countries, and taking advantage of Zoom platforms and electronic meetings to support Gaza, Al- Quds and Palestine.
7. Holding lectures, seminars, cultural and poetry evenings, discussing books about the Al-Aqsa Flood and the upcoming liberation project, and extrapolating history and experience on the anniversary of Saladin's liberation of Al Quds.
8. Producing short awareness videos, translating them into foreign languages, and recording speeches from scholars and feminist, youth, and community figures about the occasion and the Al-Aqsa flood.

- ✓ 9. Planning activities for children: drawing and coloring activities, competitions and book reading
- ✓ 10. Providing television and radio programs and exploiting the written and visual media space to convey the Gazan and Maqdisian voice .
- ✓ 11. Legal workshops with jurist unions on the legal violations of the Zionist occupation in Gaza and the criminalization of these practices in accordance with international law
- ✓ 12. Launching poetry and prose competitions, expressive drawings, and caricatures, and organizing poetry, artistic, and literary evenings
- ✓ 13. Student demonstrations and speeches about Gaza, Jerusalem, and the Al-Aqsa flood in the morning queues in schools.
- ✓ 14. Distributing a pin to students with the motivating phrase "Al-Aqsa is the flood of the Ummat .
- ✓ 15. Campaign against normalization: It is proposed to organize seminars on the nation's duties in combating normalization, along with electronic tweets and mosque sermons related to this danger.
- ✓ 16. Hanging large banners in various public places bearing messages and slogans in support of the Al-Aqsa Flood, reminding public opinion of the issue.
- ✓ 17. Communicating with various new media networks, social media networks, influencers, television and radio channels, and newspapers to talk about the issue, the memory, and the duties of the nation.

- ✓ 18. Hosting influential activists such as YouTubers and urging them to publish and interact
- ✓ 19. Organizing mobile exhibitions of the Al-Aqsa Flood and the Blessed Al-Aqsa Mosque to be displayed in various spaces and fields.
- ✓ 20. Launching donation campaigns from institutions for financial support for Gaza, Jerusalem, and the resistance fighters.
- ✓ 21. Benefiting from the "Miraj of Scholars" program and directing students to it. It is an electronic educational program specialized in introductory and advanced training for students of knowledge of both genders in the Islamic world in the Islamic sciences and arts. It is supervised by the Mi'raj Center for Research and Studies in partnership with the Scholars' Training Center in Mauritania and the Ministry of Endowments and Islamic Affairs in Gaza. The lectures are presented by a group of the nation's distinguished scholars.
- ✓ 22. Organizing a competition for memorizing Surat Al-Anfal and holding councils to contemplate the Surah according to the Al-Aqsa Flood.
- ✓ 23. Forums for various social segments in support of Gaza, Al Quds and Palestine.
- ✓ 24. An international women's forum via Zoom.
- ✓ 25. Maqdissian chanting evenings.

In conclusion, this is a diverse package of programs and projects that can be implemented, all or some of them, within the activities of the Al Quds Global Week programmes.

We are waiting for you with us in the hope of meeting you in the courtyards of the liberated blessed Al-Aqsa, God willing
